M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: True. We can park here right on the beach!

W: Oh, yes. I filled the vehicle up with freshwater in the morning. So, we can have a shower if necessary.

M: Great! There we go. Let's get out and have a look around.

W: Wow, the scenery is amazing here in Scotland in winter. Look at the sunset above the sea and the snowy mountain behind us. Let me take a picture!

M: The bad thing is that it's not summer now, but we're so lucky to spend the cold night in the warm motor home! And we can have a good view of everything from there.

W: Hello, everyone. The winter carnival is coming soon. We prepare different kinds of activities for it. I'd like to take this opportunity to talk about our plan for the winter carnival this year. We plan to hold the event from January 10th to February 12th at the Sky Site. We suggest an entrance fee of $10. You can also bring your children aged 12 or under. No admission charge for them. The site will be divided into six areas. In the center, there will be a flower show. It is a good place to take pictures. To the side of the flower show, there will be two areas for amusement rides. We will set up 30 rides in these areas. This year, there will be two new events—a fancy dress competition and an ice sculpture exhibition. We will set up a tent for the fancy dress competition. If you are good at designing clothes, bring your works to the competition. Finally, next to the entrance, there will be four food shops where visitors can enjoy food from around the world, such as Italian food, Chinese food, Japanese food and Mexican food. We have attached a map for your reference. You can pick one up at the ticket office. That's all. Thank you.

Recommending a good book

Today, I would like to recommend a good book, The Little Prince, written by French writer Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. It's about a little prince travelling from his own planet to Earth, meeting various people and things. Through his experiences, he realizes the importance of love and kindness, and conveys the message that we should cherish and protect the environment.

Here're the reasons why I recommend it. Firstly, the language of this book is easy to understand. Secondly, the storyline of this book is very vivid and interesting. Finally, the ideas conveyed in this book are very deep and meaningful.

All in all, it is worth reading. I believe it will make people happy and gain a lot in the process of reading.

参考范文:

"Wow, he is nice," Lil' Bob observed after Pete had walked away. I had to agree—something about Pete gave off love. As Lil' Bob and I enjoyed his birthday lunch, Pete worked dutifully behind the counter. I observed him with each customer who came in, watching Pete treat all customers with extreme respect and courtesy. He looked everyone in the eyes, gave each person a kind smile, and spoke with them about their day. And when their food was ready, he carried it to their table. I could imagine Pete did that out of the love he felt for everyone.

Toward the end of our stay, Pete came to our table. He gave Lil' Bob a coupon for a free meal to use in the future. "Happy birthday, little man," Pete said. "And I love the boots." My heart swelled with thanksgiving for this man who made my son feel marvelous. Pete taught me a great deal about love that day. Although his service might sound small and insignificant, it changed me for life. Pete had a simple job without any influence. Yet, he served everyone he encountered with a genuine love all could feel.
