M: Hello, International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

But please take it seriously. As you can see, this class is very popular, and many students did not get in it. All right. Everyone should have a copy of the class schedule. We meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 am to 11:30 am. If you miss a class, you can come to the Monday or Wednesday class, but please let me know so that I can make a note of it. You are only allowed to miss one class. The amount of work is not too much, but most students say that I expect more highly than most of their other professors. I want to be strict with you, so I'll make the exams harder than you may be expecting. If you need to reach me outside of class time, the best way is by email. You can also come to my office on Friday afternoons from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm or set up another time to meet me by calling my teaching assistant. The number is on the board behind me. Any questions?
