M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

Make sure to stay warm. Tuesday, that is tomorrow. The winds will die down to a low 30 km per hour, but the temperature won't reach more than 12 degrees. Wednesday and Thursday will be similar with the highest wind speeds of the week. It will reach a wild 50 km per hour thanks to a cold storm rolling in from the east. On Friday, prepare for snow because of the storm. We're only expecting 2 centimeters that day. On Saturday, it is possible to reach 8 centimeters. Make sure to get the road salt ready. Drive safely out there everybody. That's all. Thanks for listening.

第一节

参考范文:

Dear Tom,

I'm excited to tell you about our school's recent Autumn Sports Meet. The sports meet took place last week, from Friday to Sunday, on our school's main athletic field. It was a vibrant and energetic event.

There were a variety of activities and events, including traditional track and field events like the 100-meter dash, long jump and relay races. We also had some fun and engaging games, such as tug-of-war and skipping rope, which added to the excitement.

I personally participated in the 400-meter race and was a member of our class relay team. Competing is a beneficial experience for both physical and mental health. I felt a strong sense of achievement and connection with my teammates.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours,

Li Hua

第二节

参考范文:

Looking at the card, the homeless man looked up and opened up. “I lost my job. I love playing the violin, but I can’t afford to learn it anymore. I feel terrible for being like this. I’m sorry for being unfriendly to you.” Jimmy patted him gently and said, “It is okay. You still have the possibility of having a brand-new life, and if you really like music, you should never give it up.” Hearing Jimmy’s words, the man was lost in thought. Then Jimmy invited him to his home for dinner. When he left, he gave Jimmy a victory sign.

Years later, the homeless man, a famous violinist now, came to Jimmy’s home. As Jimmy opened the door, the violinist took out the kindness card he had treasured for years and said, “Without your kindness card, I couldn’t have made it. So I can’t thank you enough.” Holding his hands, Jimmy smiled and said, “It was you who helped yourself; it was you who rediscovered your love for music; it was you who found a renewed sense of purpose. I did nothing.” Then they walked into Jimmy’s house and had a long and deep conversation like old friends.
